A foreign woman claimed that she has heard about an airplane crash close to where she lives and that the pilot was a woman. This woman was tall, with short brown hair cut like a man's. Her hand and her side looked burned. And soon enough the news started spreading that the pilot was a woman, and looked like Amelia Earhart.

Is Amelia's Rumor True Or False?

In Saipan a woman heard about another woman who came to spy, then she was caught and killed. Another woman heard about the crash while she lived there too. People in Japan put the plane on display for everyone to look at. Still more say that they know and heard about Amelia
And a man on the plane.

Amelia's Rumor

I think that Amelia Earhart survived her crash though she was very hurt. People all around think that the crash was caused by the weather, but that remains a mystery. A Native woman saw her walk into a protected, guarded house, and claims Amelia lives there. The woman also said that her side and hand were both burned. But this secret will remain a mystery.
